Introduction

Janaprakash Multiple Campus(JPMC) is a non-profit making community college. Since its establishment in 2062 B.S, it has been a leading college in Lekhnath area. Since there is not even a single constituent college of T.U. It has been providing quality higher education to the local students at minimum fee. A large section of its student population constitutes economically backward and marginalized communities such as Dalit, Janajati, Brahamin and Chhetris etc.

It is only one campus which is selected for Higher Education Reform Project (HERP) from University Grants Commission in Lekhnath area. As a same, it is first campus which has taken LOI certificate for QAA selection in Lekhnath area. Walking for QAA, it is our pleasure we will take QAA in near future. Necessary reports and documents have been already submitted to UGC on behalf of campus. It has been running BBS program in the morning shift with extra facilities and management for 16 years; it has got LOI certificate from University Grants Commission to walking QAA. We have got 320 plus students in BBS classes. We have proved the best results in "T.U board exam" for the last 15 years. Janaprakash Multiple Campus, known as leading community campus in Lekhnath area, announces admission for BBS study for the new academic year.

What is the scope of BBS course in Nepal?

BBS has a quite good scope in Nepal for entry-level jobs as bookkeepers and accountants. However, in order to get better positions and acquire a high paying job, students must gain other skills along side their studies or do part-time jobs during the college.

Why do you want to study BBS?

Students pursuing BBS course acquire very strong conceptual knowledge in the field of management, finance, accounting, marketing, and other contemporary subjects. This makes students capable of competivs with other faculties and stand out in the competition.

Is BBS good for future?

A student with a BBS degree can pursue higher education such as MBS and MBA. In terms of career option, a BBS graduate can become an Accountant, work as a Tax agent, apply for government job, become a teacher and do various other works as well.

Career Prospects

- ☞ Accountant
- ☞ Business Consultant
- ☞ Product Manager
- ☞ Finance Manager
